

A woman with long, curly hair is performing a dance on a stage. She is wearing a bright green zip-up jacket over a purple top, black leggings, and black dance shoes. Her arms are raised, and her hands are clasped together above her head. The stage floor is lit with a warm, reddish-orange glow. In the background, a large blue projection screen displays the text "LONG LAKE CAMP FOR THE" in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. Above the text, there is a white silhouette of a hand holding a pencil, with a line extending from the pencil tip. To the left of the dancer, a small, ornate metal table is visible. The overall atmosphere is that of a performance or presentation at a camp event.
