"Don't dream it, live it!"

LONG LAKE CAMP FOR THE ARTS

Since 1969 Long Lake Camp For The Arts has provided the ideal place for meaningful summer fun focusing on Performing Arts and Fine Arts for campers from all over the world.

Campers immerse themselves in the Performing and Fine Arts at Long Lake. Every camper has the opportunity to shine no matter what their level of interest or experience. Campers at Long Lake select an individual program based on their desires for a wonderful summer. Our campers wish to pursue a summer immersed in the arts and some may wish to enjoy sports and take advantage of a spectacular waterfront too. We provide the means to explore exciting new ideas and balance them with traditional summer fun. At Long Lake every camper has the opportunity and is encouraged to try many new activities. Everything at Long Lake is offered to the very beginner and our professional staff members also challenge the most experienced. Long Lake's unique non-competitive atmosphere and support for one another sets the stage for strong, meaningful friendships that last forever.

Our perfect size and ideal staff-to-camper ratio of only 250 campers and 160 staff creates a warm, secure and nurturing environment. This allows for unparalleled attention to each camper all day, every day with a 100% customized and flexible schedule. Campers feel safe and supported enough to venture into new activities and quickly become confident in their new-found abilities.

Our staff are all exciting, working professionals, teachers or graduate students, and are chosen for their technical knowledge, personal enthusiasm, and their ability to nurture and reach young people. Our campers are thrilled with how much they learn by working daily with talented people and by taking part in shows and performances every week.

Our campus, a 200-acre former private estate, lies on the western shore of Long Lake. Lawns slope to clear blue water at a wide lakefront; graceful fieldstone buildings have been converted and modernized for camp use. The timbered part of our property merges with the great Adirondack Park which surrounds us. This is deep, dramatic country spanning six million acres, with 46 peaks rising high above 4,000 feet with thousands of lakes and streams and unspoiled, abundant forest.

Our arts programs are balanced by a variety of field and water sports as well as exciting evening activities. Socializing is not a separate event, but part of an ongoing social process where campers quickly become friends in an easy day-to-day manner.

Long Lakers of all ages choose our camp for its individual structure. The unique size of our camp allows each camper the freedom to choose under our careful guidance and leadership. Special to Long Lake are our "Unit Leaders," who directly insure that campers and parents receive an enriching and rewarding experience each summer.

Long Lake's magic is possible because we attract campers who love the arts, want to share in each other's success, and make great friends.

At Long Lake Camp nature and the arts are complementary elements. Here is the most majestic of physical settings on a lake surrounded by the fabled Adirondack Mountains and a program that brings exciting opportunities to performing and visual arts.

Three generations of camp leadership: Owners/ Directors Susan and Marc Katz beside sons Ryan, Harry and Lee (Director of Long Lake Camp Adventures next door) with his wife Cindy, Office Manager, and their son Cain and daughter Ivy. They concentrate all their time and energies on providing the best summer possible for campers entrusted to them.

Theater at Long Lake

Every three weeks
LONG LAKE produces
5 musicals, 4 plays and comedies and a young campers' show designed for campers 11 and under.
We produce more shows in one summer than
Broadway does all year!

At Long Lake campers take advantage of tremendous opportunities, especially in theater. Dedicated campers and staff join together in creating 27 Broadway musicals, plays and comedies each summer. These dramatic productions demand commitment to hard work and provide opportunities to create unbreakable bonds and friendships. Production values for our shows are world class with rehearsals daily, but the emphasis is on fun and togetherness. Campers come to Long Lake to also take classes and perfect their skills by performing regularly. On and off stage, campers gain valuable experience from professional directors, music directors, and choreographers all chosen for their own talent and ability to lead and share their passion for theater.

Our costume department creates more than 2,700 original, custom-fitted costumes, tailor-made to each camper and their role.

Our campers love to perform and feel that live-on-stage experience is important to perfect their craft. Friday nights are "Performing Arts Nights" when our actors perform based on their daily classes and "works in progress." Vocalists share Broadway show tunes they have been working on throughout the week and the evening culminates with the premiere of many new films each week. On Saturday nights our rock musicians in the many bands formed perform live concerts on stage. Our Sunday night "Chamber Evening" affords all our musicians, vocalists, orchestra and our many jazz bands to perform in concert.

Music at Long Lake

As with all of our arts, campers are able to focus on what they like best. They can seriously study technique and theory by working daily with accomplished musicians. We also guide our beginners who wish to learn a new instrument or take a more casual interest in music. Our entire music program focuses on individual and small ensembles so campers can play music that they wish to share with us. Each week on Friday and Sunday evenings our musicians perform for the rest of the camp in a varied program of instrument and voice. We have an orchestra that rehearses daily and performs every week. Campers also enjoy being in the many pit orchestras for our musical productions. We also have a digital recording studio that allows campers to produce professional CDs and MP3s. Casual student or serious musician, no need to transpose, the right key for you is at Long Lake.

Our vocal campers study individually and get in-depth training in song interpretation and technique. In addition, each weekend performance opportunities include solos and small ensembles as well as choral pieces and "works in progress" from our musical productions. Your voice will be heard!

Unit Leaders really set Long Lake apart. They are an outstanding group of caring people ensuring that campers and parents enjoy all they can from their Long Lake experience. Only at Long Lake our Unit Leaders' sole purpose is turning each camper's dreams into reality.

Unit Leaders are assigned a small group of campers to help and guide in addition to our mature, caring bunk staff. Unit leaders are proactive, scheduling talks with campers daily or weekly as needed to ensure campers are getting exactly what they want. Parents receive personal calls from your child's Unit leader informing you about all the wonderful activities your child is participating in as well as their well-being. Unit Leaders are also your camp confidant and sounding board. Sometimes it is just as hard for our parents as it is for campers when it is your first sleep away camp experience.

Unit Leaders are your child's advocate while at camp, encouraging them and helping them in every way possible. Unit Leaders are directly responsible for the overwhelming success with overcoming home sickness, practically eliminating it. The scheduling of activities, especially for our youngest campers, can be daunting. Unit Leaders are available all day to offer advice and to help our campers organize their time to make every day enriching and full of activities they love. At Long Lake, we do not wonder if our campers are happy, we know, because of the close relationship and bonds that are developed between the Unit Leaders, campers and parents on a daily basis.

Unit Leaders - "You call them up, they make it happen." Only Long Lake ensures success by providing you a personal camp concierge who knows what your camper is doing at all times, how they are feeling and who their friends are. They make sure the magic of Long Lake happens and gives you unique access to your child's all important accomplishments. Only Long Lake offers you this comprehensive personal attention.

"AT LONG LAKE, I DO IT ALL AND I LOVE EVERY MINUTE OF EVERY DAY."

"THE COUNSELORS ARE GREAT! I'VE LEARNED SO MUCH FROM THEM"

Our Spectacular Staff

Our inspiring staff are the very best you could hope to have caring for your children. Most are multi-year returners, calling Long Lake their home away from home too. Camp Owners, Marc and Susan, are at camp all summer and are instrumental in all aspects of camp safety, creativity and nurturing. Long Lake is their full-time passion; they dedicate all their energies to Long Lake and your children. Our department heads have 10 to 20 years or more at Long Lake. Their experience and leadership guarantees consistency and quality in every facet of Long Lake. Our Directors, Carolyn and Geoff, have more than 25 years' experience each at Long Lake. Their excitement and dedication to Long Lake inspires both campers and staff alike. Our hand-picked staff from all over the world undergo a rigorous interviewing and vetting process. Extensive, in-depth training takes place before we allow them to lead your campers through the summer.

Our resident registered nurses are chosen for their knowledge, exceptional warmth and caring towards children. All are under the guidance and standing orders of Dr. Russell Ryder (Princeton 1982), resident MD in the town of Long Lake. Campers receive great care and our nurses monitor and dispense medications according to your doctor's written orders. The town has a professionally equipped medical center and two paramedic ambulance units. Because of our commitment to safety and care, Long Lake parents have a direct telephone number to our nurses.

Upon arrival you are warmly welcomed and feel comfortable enough to start making new friends. The first night of each session, Long Lakers enjoy a "make your own ice cream sundae," a fantastic ice-breaking party which is great fun for every bunk and forges the start of many experiences that bonds the bunk together. Then individual bunks meet to discuss each camper's specific needs, likes, dislikes and hopes for the summer. By the first morning campers have made friends, feel comfortable and are ready to embark on new adventures through our orientation day.

Our actors meet every director, learn about the shows and audition.

ACTIVITIES BEGIN on the second day and include theater call backs.
